

Robert “Bob” Hoover Bio

Bob is a 2nd generation conservative Republican who is very concerned about the current direction of the party at the local, state, and national levels.

Born and raised in the mountains of rural central Pennsylvania, Bob has lived and worked in the Carolinas for the last 30 years. He and his wife first visited Lake Keowee in 1997 and moved here in 2016.

Bob graduated from Penn State University with a degree in Marketing and a minor in Psychology.

Bob was a National Accounts Manager for Silicon Valley startup, Aurora Networks, selling multi-wavelength fiber optic communications systems to national cable TV and regional telephone companies for 15 years, retiring in 2017. For 15 years before that, Bob was a Customer Service Manager, International Account Executive for Latin America, and Southeast Regional Account Executive for C-COR Electronics in State College, PA.

In 2005, Bob and his wife opened Camp Bow Wow, Greenville’s first full-service doggy daycare and boarding center.

Bob has been doing therapy dog work for 15 years, visiting senior centers, schools, colleges, and hospitals with his certified therapy dogs. Bob does raptor rescue and transport for the Avian Conservation Center in Charleston, SC. Other pastimes include fly fishing, photography, motorcycling, and boating. Bob also holds private pilot and amateur radio licenses. Bob serves on the Board of the Oconee Humane Society.
